Please note: The presentations on Sept. 8th & 9th. Plus, Sept. 15th & 16th MUST be taken together for continuity of content.

If you only need 4+ hours, you may select any other presentation.

If you have questions regarding the training, please email Sally Lokey at drsallymft@gmail.com or Christy Stillwell at cstillwell@homeboyindustries.org.

Topics for each 4-hour session will fulfill the requirements listed in the California Penal Code 1203.097 and curriculum-based training that is approved by the Los Angeles Probation Department.

We look forward to seeing you at our training and thank you for your continued support of ABIP and for the important work you do during these stressful times.

Presenter Bios

Edward Jacobs has been facilitating Domestic Violence groups since 2019. He holds a bachelor's degree in psychology from UCLA, and a law degree from University of San Diego School of Law. He is certified by ABIP."

Lynda Campbell - Lynda currently volunteers at Angel Step Inn Emergency DV Shelter. Lynda was formerly a staff member at Haven House, Inc. for 24 years and is an experience counselor and group facilitator for male and female recovery programs, with emphasis on the impact of addiction on domestic violence.

Daniel Chinn - One of those people that has provided groups for a long time, Daniel is dedicated to the mission of addressing domestic violence in our society. He is a clinical social worker that has worked in his private practice, state hospital, and state prison settings. He remains in private practice in San Luis Obispo County and is a certified provider for batterer intervention programming. He calls his programming "Men Helping Men."

Michael Cochrane, MBA - Michael has spent twenty-nine years as a DV facilitator/co-facilitator, facilitating Men's DV Group at Foothill Family Services and at Management 411. He also has expertise in intervention techniques for partner abuse, targeting self-esteem issues, rage, and anger. He also works with interpersonal family issues and specializes in various ethnic cultural issues. Michael is also a longtime ABIP Board Member and current Co-Chair.

Isabella Goeders, MS - Isabella is an MFT intern at the Chinatown Service Center in Los Angeles where she is a therapist working with families, parenting classes, and as a DV facilitator. She was one of the founding members of the Asian Pacific Islander DV Task Force in 2004. Isabella was one of the recipients of the 2013 Woman of the Year for her years of volunteer and advocate work done with DV victims.

Maria Levya - Maria has over 30 years of experience working at Jewish Family Services and the LAPD assisting the domestic violence response team. She also founded the Children Safety Alliance Group (TCSA) which provides professional supervised visits to assist families going through divorce or separation to reunite with their children. Maria also founded Community Safety Alliance Group which is a family support and training agency. Her goal is to work with the justice system to assist our community with education to maintain families and avoid family separation.

Stephen Lasicka - Stephen is a SUDCC III and has worked in AOD treatment for fourteen years. He facilitates and instructs batterers intervention, anger management, and drug diversion at Tarzana Treatment Centers and alcohol/drug education counseling at Driver Safety School. He was previously involved in facilitator training at Homeboy Industries. His education includes a BA from UCLA, JD Loyola Law, and Addiction Studies certification at LA Pierce College.

Alyce La Violette, MS, MFT - Alyce founded Alternatives to Violence in 1979 and has worked with battered women since 1978. Alyce is both a national and international speaker and trainer, as an expert witness and best-selling author for Sage Publications with the 3rd edition of her book It Could Happen to Anyone: Why Women Stay (available on Amazon).

Cecelia Walker - Cecelia has worked in the field for 17-years, a survivor in recovery since 2002. Her lived experience informs her passion for equitable, appropriate services for those in need. In 2004, she volunteered at Haven House and was later hired as a Housing Case Manager and Outreach Advocate for Angel Step Inn DV Emergency Shelter. She holds a BA in sociology and MS in Human Services, certified substance abuse counselor, and is co-chair of the Religion & Domestic Violence Committee of the Los Angeles DV Council, member of the DV Alliance, LA Regional Policy Committee, and Community Action Network.
